

Rhode Island Teacher Assistants' Fall Conference

September 28th 2013

Sponsored by the Rhode Island Department of Education

“Educators working together to support All students in Rhode Island”

Life in the classroom for teacher assistants is “Connection, Management, & Student Learning.” This professional development conference is designed to provide hands-on strategies and techniques that Teacher Assistants may implement to support student success within the classroom.

Workshop Sessions topics include:

- Implementation of Educational Supports in the General Education Classroom
- Autism and the “Five Point Scale” Tool
- Autism and Its Impact in the School Setting
- Supporting Students with emotional disabilities (anxiety, depression, and behavioral dysregulation)
- Ipad Applications: Basic Skills in the Classroom

*Professional Development hours (up to 6 hours) will be awarded for workshop attendance

*Participants may select workshop sessions based on topic and grade span (Elementary, Middle or Secondary)

Where: Cole Middle School
100 Cedar Avenue
East Greenwich R.I. 02818

When: September 28th, 2013
8:00 am – 3:00 pm
(Check in begins at 7:30 am)

Cost: $20.00 (includes lunch)

Registration:

- Registration deadline: Monday, September 23rd
- Register at www.ebecri.org
- Registration is coordinated by the East Bay Educational Collaborative
- Registration payment must be received prior to the conference

For registration assistance, contact Lisa Labitt at lisa.labitt@ebecri.org